

Music City Miniature Donkey Show Show Rules and Regulations

- Rules and Regulations: National Miniature Donkey Association show rules to govern Miniature Donkey classes according to current NMDA rulebook.
- Exhibitors are to have no contact with the judge during the show. If there is conversation between exhibitors and the judge that is not initiated by the judge, show management has the right to ask that exhibitor to leave the show with no refund of fees. If the judge approaches the exhibitor with a question or comment this is a different situation.
- Dress code: Miniature Donkey exhibitors will follow the NMDA rulebook.
- The judge's decision is final in all events/classes.
- All miniature donkeys must be registered prior to the show. A copy of registration forms need to accompany entry form for each animal.
- Height verification for show animals will be done at the time of your check in when you receive your exhibitor packet.
- All courses, patterns and class instructions will be posted on website (www.americandonkeyassociation.com) 2 weeks prior to the start of the show.
- Stall fees are $25 per day with four (4) donkeys per stall. If a stall is not purchased then a grounds usage fee of $10 applies.
- No personal practice obstacles are allowed on the grounds.
- Ties: In case of a tie in a timed class, there will be a run off. High point ties will be broken by number of first places, then by number of animals placed over.
- High Point Calculation: To keep aligned with the Excellence and Supreme program offered by American Donkey Association high point will be based on 5 points. For classes having 5 or more entries, first place will receive 5 points then descending to 1 point.
- One year old and older jacks must be handled by adults 18 years and older. Jacks over 1 year old must have a stud chain on their halters at all times.
- Any unruly animal may be excused from the show ring by the judge or ring steward.
- A two minute gate rule will be in effect.
- The aisles in the barn are to remain free of clutter and tack is to be stored in a tack stall or at your trailer. Also, it is expected that everyone clean-up after their animal if it messes in the barn aisle area.

Dogs are not allowed.

Thank you for participating. Enjoy the show!
